NOT MONEY ENOUGH.

A new advocate of the cause of the people has made its appearance at Bridgewater, New York, and entitled "The Silver Leaf." The following is from its columns:

The overwhelming majorities which greet Democrats in every instance where spring or special elections are held, ought to teach a lesson. No one will deny that it indicates dissatisfaction among the people. The triumphant politicians say it is due to the record of their opponents while in power, but such statements of the reason are too broad to be of any use to one looking for a solution of our national problems.

The Silver Leaf has the advantage of being independent in politics. It can therefore point out the true cause for the "landslides" without fear of party bosses or having to go to headquarters for brains. When Cleveland was elected the last time there was such a political upheaval as had never before been known, and since that election things are going the other way. No one but the professional politician is satisfied with the general condition of things. Dissatisfaction reigns supreme. With either party in power the financial stringency and stagnation of business becomes worse.

The true cause of the depression and discontent is due to the condition of our currency. With our gold all gone, and not enough to begin with, and the supply of silver money completely choked off, there is nothing to stop the contraction of the currency. With less money, with which to carry on business, and harder work to get that money, it is no wonder that the people are dissatisfied. So long as we lack money necessary for ordinary trade, the issue before the people is not whether the Democrats or the Republicans view the tariff from the proper point, but to provide a suitable and sufficient currency. Enough gold is out of the question. It does not exist. Give us the next best thing, silver, and plenty of it, and prosperity and contentment will return to us.

From Townsend's Index.

Chris. Evans, the cowardly murderer, surrendered to Sheriff Kay at Visalia last Monday and is now in the State prison at Folsom. His last act shows that he is a sandless blowhard. He often declared that he would never be taken alive, yet he squawked when he found himself in a hole. When he "had the drop" on anybody he was terribly bold, but when it came to give and take, man fashion, he got behind a rock. He should never have seen the inside of a jail.

The old project to invoke Government aid to explore the Comstock to a depth of 5,000 feet in being revived. It is a proper scheme. A few million dollars cannot be better employed. The Comstock saved the Government; now let the latter resuscitate the old lode. There are millions remaining in it and the country needs all. But the shortsighted things who now manipulate the political apparatus must be fired before the proposition can be hopelessly discussed.

Not a house in town escaped the general baptism this week and last. The snow invaded every cranny. The tightest bulkhead ever constructed could not exclude it, and when it melted everything was afloat, until cold turned it into a skating rink. Open doors could not be shut, and closed ones couldn't be opened. It does not seem possible that snow will blow in alongside of a screw or nail, but it will. A keyhole will let in more than a man can shovel out. The best way is to open windows and give it free admission; then go to bed and swear and shiver till the wind changes and blows it out again.

When the appropriation of $500 for the Nevada exhibit at the Fair was first talked of, the Tribune was decidedly opposed to it, and intimated that Commissioner Petersen voted against it because he was afraid he couldn't sell some hay or something of that sort. Now Eddie P. is awful anxious to see the appropriation made and accuses Petersen of being a silurian. Consistency thou art a diamond of the first water.

A Loose Bear.

Last July a bear was captured and caged at Merrill's place in Woodford's canyon. He was a cub when captured, but now weighs somewhere in the neighborhood of 800 pounds. On Sunday he parted his chain and has been at large ever since. Efforts are being made to locate and capture the truant brute, as it is feared that he may take a notion to go about seeking whom he may devour.

When last seen he was headed for Carson, and was accompanied by a mouthful of teeth and a deep-seated, insatiable appetite.

The latest advices from along the road are to the effect that several guns are being "loaded for bear."

Sam Wasson of Silver Peak has been visiting friends in Carson for the past few days. He is an old resident of Esmeralda county.

The Weiland Saloon.

W. Whitney has assumed control of the Weiland saloon, which he proposes to run strictly up to the times. He will dispense the best liquors and cigars and fine old Government whiskey, which slides down your throat like oil, tickling your palate meanwhile. Call and see "Handsome Whit."

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. V. Brown's tiny Syrup of Sassafras is best use for children's coughing. It soothes the child's feverish gums, allays the pain, cures colds and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. 5 cents a bottle.

Benton's Liniment.

Which has been used in Carson for over twenty-five years, has saved many an ache and pain to those who know it. It is really intended for horses but works with the same magical effect on the human. It is a powerful remedy and for rheumatism is the king of the world. Aches knocked out in short order. No horseman should be without a bottle. n6f
